

Help Us Select the PLANET AEF OUTSTANDING EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR!

Criteria/Eligibility:

- Nominee must be a professor at a two- or four-year institution with significant programs dedicated in the field of green industry.
- The professor must have made a significant contribution to education in the green industry.
- The professor must be nominated by a current PLANET member. If a student wishes to nominate an educator for this award, he/she must solicit a PLANET member to endorse the nomination.

Past Recipients:

- 2008 — Rex Bishop, North Metro Technical College
- 2007 — Jack E. Ingels, State University of New York at Cobleskill
- 2006 — Phil Allen, BYU-Provo
- 2005 — Grant Reid, Colorado State University
- 2004 — Kent Hammond, Ohio State University-ATI
- 2003 — Martha Hill, Hinds Community College
- 2002 — Steve Angley, Cal Poly State University-SLO
- 2001 — Frank Millsap, Richland College

Please complete the nomination form below and return to the Professional Landcare Network office via fax at 703-736-9668 by

FEBRUARY 2, 2009

PLANET AEF OUTSTANDING EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR AWARD NOMINATION FORM

(please type or print legibly)

Professor's name _____

College/University where Professor teaches: _____ Dept.: _____

Endorsed by: _____

Basis for nomination (be sure to list significant contributions made to the green industry and include additional pages if necessary):

Company _____

College _____

Submitted by: _____ Phone: (_____) _____

E-mail address: _____